Little Big Shot Competitive Shootout Kicks Off This Weekend

March 16, 2016 -- The Little Big Shot competitive shootout kicks off this weekend with the Auto Dealers competing March 20th at HOPE Farm. This exciting and competitive basketball shootout game allows players of all ages and abilities to have fun and show off their skills while raising funds for great causes. The shootout will be continued March 26th and includes teams of players that have five minutes to shoot baskets from the college 3-Point Line and two minutes to shoot from the NBA 3-Point Line. Teams with the most points advance to the next round of play until there is a final grand-prize winner in each division.

"The Little Big Shot tournament was created to bring together all ages within our community to participate in an fun event while helping to support and bring awareness to organizations that are making a difference in our community every day," stated Tom Slone, Founder and CEO Little Big Shot. "Funds raised during the event will benefit children's advocacy groups serving at-risk children including HOPE Farm of Fort Worth, New Horizons of North Texas and Nazareth Retreat Center."

Those wishing to support Little Big Shot and the organizations they can support can donate online at gofundme.com/LittleBigShotTX, sponsor teams for the tournament that include tables at the Gala or individual seats at the Gala may be purchased. Little Big Shot is also selling raffle tickets for the chance to win a 2016 Mazda Miata compliments of Hiley Mazda. Tickets are $100 and available for purchase at littlebigshottexas.com. All proceeds to directly benefit HOPE Farm, New Horizons and Nazareth Retreat Center.
